MISSOURI SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND

Volume 11, Issue 11

June, 2010

"Fit for Life," held May 4 at MSB, introduced 43 St. Louis area blind and visually impaired students to leisure and recreational activities, including (counter clockwise from left) shotput, tandem biking, beep baseball and judo. The students, who came from Bayless, Oakville, Francis Howell, Webster Groves and Fort Zumwalt school districts, as well as MSB, also got to experience goalball, bowling, weight lifting and nutrition. Staff were assisted by Lighthouse for the Blind, USABA, Gateway Disabled Ski Program, Delta Gamma, Hammerbodies, RSB, St. Louis Society for the Blind, Blind Bowlers League, Disabled Athletic Sports Association and the Recreation Council of St. Louis.

Gifts of the Soul

At left Residential Advisor Robin Pointer assists Cody and Johnathon Grissom (aka Double Trouble with a Twist) during their performance of Spend My Nights in Love with You at Gifts of the Soul May 18. The program honored Jesuita Tabor and Kitty Demsky of St. Louis Service Club for the Blind for their assistance to MSB students. Numerous staff and students, including Noah O'Neal (An American Son), shown singing God Bless the USA, performed under the direction of CARS Coordinator Marsha Bryant. Mistress of Ceremonies for the program was Ms. Rogernetta Frinch Fri.

One of a Kind

Emily Pope created this copper bracelet in David Wixom's Technology Club this spring. Emily fashioned it from one continuous braided and twisted wire, which has been bonded together and lacquered. Contrast is provided by a bright blue band, which also functions as an adhesive.
